1 CUT A RUG

Paper Cut Out by Vanderhurd Studio evokes the intricate silhouettes of Japanese stencil art. Made of hand-knotted wool and metallic thread, it is shown in indigo. Custom colors and sizes are available, and prices start at $7,560 for a 6' x 9' rug. Call 212-213-6541 or visit vanderhurd.com.

2 GOLDEN TOUCH

J. Randall Powers's seven-piece debut lighting collection for Visual Comfort & Co. includes the Lancaster floor lamp, modeled after one of the decorator's Paris flea-market finds. The gilded-iron base, also available in an aged-iron finish, is topped by a cream paper lampshade. It measures 64" h. x 23" dia. and costs $525. Available in mid September from Circa Lighting, 877-762-2323; circalighting.com.

3 LITTLE LUXURIES

Herend's Little Duckling dishware collection makes a sweet table setting for diminutive diners. Charming yellow ducks are hand-painted on porcelain in the company's signature fishnet pattern. The bowl, plate, and mug each cost $120. For stores, call 800-643-7363 or visit herendusa.com.

4 IT'S A BREEZE

Deco Breeze's new Retro Metal Box fan in stainless steel is reminiscent of industrial blowers. Scaled down to tabletop size at 12.5" h. x 10" w., it comes in white, black, merlot, and sapphire and costs $55. For stores, call 800-979-4326; decobreeze.com.

5 HIDDEN AGENDA

Armani/Casa's three-panel Blush folding screen is made of striped Macassar ebony, an Art Deco favorite. Measuring just 39.4" tall, it adds dimension to a room without sacrificing sight lines and costs $6,825. Available at Armani/Casa, 212-334-1271, or go to armanicasa.com.
