Asian Delicacies

The ancient Chinese art of cloisonné brings newfound elegance to lamps, serving trays and dishes.

Etc.

Cloisonné pieces should be handled carefully. Any sort of significant dent or loss of enamel, and their value plummet.

A. Jamie Young Company Cloisonné Lama Table Lamp, $900 (12.25" x 4.5"), and Large Oval Rectangle Shade, $250 (24" x 11") Bronzed and topped with a rich silk shade, this lamp cools off with scrolls of blue and tangerine; Jamie Young Company, 866-295-2677 for stores.
B. Shipwreck Beads Cloisonné Beads 8mm–20mm, $0.15–$1.50/each Festooned with twisting gold and shimmering flowers, these beads look pretty spilled on a dish; Shipwreck Beads, 800-950-4232, or shipwreckbeads.com.

C. Robert Kuo for McGuire Cloisonné Charger in blue/teal, $465 (12.75" dia.) Stunning on a dining table; equally gorgeous mounted on a wall. Also in six other colors. McGuire, NY, 212-689-1565, or kohlerinteriors.com for stores.

D. We ♥: Christine Van Der Hurd for Zig Zag Evv Ltd. "Oblong Box in Box" Enamel and Gold-Plated Tray, and "Oblong Box in Box 2," $550/each (14.5" x 10.5") Made from bronze.
