FEEDING THE 6,000: Life Below Stairs at Petworth House

6 Oscar Niemeyer, the Le Corbusier of Brazil, turned 100 in December. To mark the occasion, R20th Century has reissued a number of his designs, such as this 1978 'Rio' rocker/ chaise-longue ($28,000). At last year's Design Miami, the gallery also resurrected pieces by 20th-century designer Poul Kjaerholm, launching four limited-edition designs, including these 1953 'Molded Aluminium Tripod' chairs (from $7,000 each). Ring 001 212 343 7979, or visit r20thcentury.com.

7 Linda Barker, staple-gun-wielding interior designer and star of Changing Rooms, has glued herself to a new project. This 'L10055' chandelier (£55), which has a chic bohemian appeal, is to be found in the pages of the Really Linda Barker mail-order homeware catalogue. Ring 0870 242 0651, or visit reallylindabarker.co.uk.

8 Sherry Olson has twigged that while she didn't inherit her father's gift for carpentry, she does share his passion for wood. Her talent is for handmaking unusual glazed clay vessels modelled on gnarled tree branches (from £108 approx each). Ring Miller & Bertaux on 00 33 1 42 78 28 39, or visit milleretbertaux.com.

9 Christine van der Hurd is the latest in a long line of designers and artists – Henri Matisse being the most notable – who've found inspiration in paper cut-outs. Her gold 'Positive Flower Cut-Out' and indigo 'Paper Cut-Out' prints on linen are available from Tissus d'Hélène for £116 per m. Ring 020 7352 9977.

10 Time was, padded headboards were synonymous with seedy bed-and-breakfasts. But thanks to Robert Langford's 16 contemporary designs they can now grace the most salubrious of homes.
